Town of Bluffton Christmas Toy Drive

For the fourth year, the Town of Bluffton will be collecting toys to give to Bluffton children who otherwise may not have gifts under their tree Christmas morning.

You can drop off unwrapped toys for ages 0-12 at four different locations from now until December 15.

This year the Town is partnering with Bluffton Self Help, Harbor Light Insurance, Brightway Insurance, Publix Super Market, Collins Realty, APEX Broadcasting and the Cypress Ridge community to ensure as many Bluffton families benefit from the Toy Drive. The Collins Realty Group will have several different toy drop-off locations along the Bluffton Christmas Parade route which will be held in Old Town on Saturday, December 2 at 10 a.m. APEX Broadcasting will collect toys at the end of the Parade at the Rotary Community Center in Bluffton Park.

"What started out as a toy drive for a few Bluffton families has transitioned into a true community effort. We appreciate the partners we have gathered over the years to make this a Christmas these children will remember forever," said Bluffton Police Chief Joseph Manning.
